

Promotions for Kenilworth Celebrates!

Thanks to Rod and Tony who are taking the Greg Postle Raffle to all the major towns in the Shire, and collecting raffle tickets and talking about Kenilworth Celebrates! to all passersby.....

They will be next in Buderim; followed by Noosa and Palmwoods. They have been to Nambour, Cooroy and will be in Kenilworth on alternate Saturdays, first and third of the month. Sharyn Bentley is doing a great job with the Market promotion – new president Kim has been to arts places on the Coast, and has a brief report them in this newsletter – so talk to all your friends about the Celebration...This is the best way to spread the word, according to Qld Events.....

The Kenilworth Art Prize entries, and the Trophy Arts fest Entries are starting to roll in....interestingly all the arts fest to date have been own print out; not on the nearly 2,000 we have posted and delivered throughout the State!

Two of the workshops are booked out, that of Maxine Thompson at the end of the month, and Jenni Kelly .....There are some places left in the others; so book soon!

For full update of the Celebrates! Activities, look at our website www.kenilworthcelebrates.org.au. This newsletter is also on line at www.kenilwortharts.org.au.....

Mary Valley Arts

June 2010

I am just so thrilled to be part of such a talented, creative and welcoming group of people who give of themselves to the community. In the past few weeks I have become a member of the Sunshine Coast Creative Alliance which promotes the development of creative and knowledge industries on the Sunshine Coast. Carrington's in Noosaville hosted their second function. This wonderful gallery showcases and promotes emerging talent and presented me with the perfect opportunity to talk to local artists and promote the KAC Art Competition (3 artists expressed interest in submitting their work). The Curator of the Gallery wants to attend some Kenilworth Celebrates events. The Vice-President of the Buderim Arts Cottage art group (who has her own gallery) invited me to join their Wednesday art class. Such talent of all mediums! Amazingly the President approached me to be part of the committee to form the Buderim Arts Society. My wish is that this will ultimately enable me to further promote KAC to the community. While I do not reside in Kenilworth, I hope to bring the coasties to the country !! See you in Kenilworth next week at the Committee Meeting....

Kim Morris President.
