SUBJECT: KENILWORTH CELEBRATES! - Christos Exhibition by Kathleen Cashin

As part of Kenilworth Celebrates! 2011 Kathleen Cashin will host a solo exhibition in the St. John Bosco Church. A major body of art has been produced for this exhibition.

Kathleen's art explores what it means to be human - our fragility, our emotional and physical suffering, our serenity and our moments of superb joy, in her provoking body of work entitled Christos. She says, "Our experiences are often universal but our responses always remain personal. This otherness called faith is investigated, and reference is made to the history, narratives and motifs of this ancient belief system."

Christos will be on display at St John Bosco's Church Kenilworth for one week from 24th September 2011.

Once again, Kenilworth Celebrates! is contributing to its high expectations by being the best Art Festival on the Sunshine Coast. This would not be possible without the help of the sponsors all volunteers, a supportive local community, and the Sunshine Coast Regional Council.
