

Artist's Profile – John Wilson

John Wilson is a Fellow of The Royal Art Society of NSW and the patron of the Society of Mountain Artists. He is one of Australia's leading oil painters, a multi-award winning artist who is recognised internationally and whose works have been reproduced extensively.

John's elegant paintings capture the more elusive qualities unique to our Australian landscape. His works, considered highly collectable are represented in private, corporate and public collections throughout Australia and internationally.

For John growing up in the beautiful Blue Mountains instilled a deep love of the rugged grandeur, spectacular colours and the many moods they inspired. Whilst always fascinated by paintings and artists, John did not pursue his interest in art with real seriousness until his mid twenties. He had been working as a professional musician and wandered into painting as a hobby. It was not long before he decided to devote himself completely to becoming an artist.

Today John's elegant paintings capture the more elusive qualities of the Australian landscape. He is a multi award winning artist who is widely recognised internationally and also as one of Australia's leading painters of landscape.

John's first exhibition was held in 1979, he is now a veteran of thirty one (31) solo exhibitions and many more shared exhibitions with other artists. He has exhibited in London, Japan, the United States and Canada and in 2007 has an exhibition in Beijing China.

John's paintings are represented in public, private and corporate collections throughout Australia and internationally. His works have been reproduced extensively, including the books 'Visual Artists of the Blue Mountains' and 'ArtFiles' and several feature articles in Australian Artist and International Artist magazines.
